

Welcome to Saint Ternan's Scottish Episcopal Church
11 February 2018
The Sunday before Lent

Collect

Almighty Father, whose Son was revealed in majesty before he suffered death upon the cross: give us grace to perceive his glory, that we may be strengthened to suffer with him and be changed into his likeness, from glory to glory; who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Amen.

A reading from the second letter of Paul to the Corinthians.

Even if our gospel is veiled, it is veiled to those who are perishing. In their case the god of this world has blinded the minds of the unbelievers, to keep them from seeing the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God. For we do not proclaim ourselves; we proclaim Jesus Christ as Lord and ourselves as your slaves for Jesus' sake. For it is the God who said, 'Let light shine out of darkness,' who has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

*In response to the reader's concluding lines, the People say: Thanks be to God.

The Gospel

When the Gospel is read in a communion service, in response to the reader's introduction, the People say: (8am) Glory be to thee, O Lord.

or (11am) Glory to Christ our Saviour.

Jesus took with him Peter and James and John, and led them up a high mountain apart, by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, and his clothes became dazzling white, such as no one on earth could bleach them. And there appeared to them Elijah with Moses, who were talking with Jesus. Then Peter said to Jesus, 'Rabbi, it is good for us to be here; let us make three dwellings, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.' He did not know what to say, for they were terrified. Then a cloud overshadowed them, and from the cloud there came a voice, 'This is my Son, the Beloved; listen to him!' Suddenly when they looked around, they saw no one with them any more, but only Jesus. As they were coming down the mountain, he ordered them to tell no one about what they had seen, until after the Son of Man had risen from the dead.

When the Gospel is read in a communion service, in response to the reader's concluding lines, the People say:

(8am) Thanks be to thee, O Lord, for this thy Glorious Gospel or (11am) Praise to Christ our Lord.

Post Communion Prayer

Holy God, we see your glory in the face of Jesus Christ: may we who are partakers at his table reflect his life in word and deed, that all the world may know his power to change and save. This we ask through Jesus Christ our Lord.

People: Amen.

Source of the readings: 2 Corinthians 4: 3-6. Mark 9: 2-9.

A Prayer for St. Ternan's at this time

Gracious Lord, as members of your church in this place, We ask your blessing upon us at this time of transition and change. We ask for perseverance to be able to obey your command. To love and serve you with mind and body, heart and soul, and to love each other as we love ourselves, cherishing young and old alike. We pray for the gifts of the Holy Spirit as we all share and participate in the continuing ministry, here at St. Ternan's through prayer, care and the study of your word.

We ask that you continue to guide and direct us in the way forward as we put our faith and trust in you, O Lord, our rock and our Redeemer. Amen.

A Prayer for the Diocese

God, who has called us to be members together of your Church, which is the body of your Son, pour out your Spirit on this Diocese.

Endue with strength and love and wisdom all who bear authority therein.

Accept our gifts, our labours and our love, and use them for the advancement of your kingdom and the glory of your name.

Lead us in all our work for you, and unite us in the joyful service of your Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen

Thought for the week

An Extract from On Eagles' Wings by David Adam:

"Live in Love and Peace with each other and with all the faithful. Remember there is no room for divisions and quarrels in the Church. If we are not at one with each other we cannot be at one with God. Pray for Peace, live in Peace and share your peace with all. The Peace of God be always with you."

For Your Diary

Monday 19 February 2018

Parish Fellowship meeting at 8 pm in the church hall, all welcome.

This month's speaker is our own Jane-Anne Cameron.

Her Topic: Picts and Saints.

Early Christianity in Scotland and Pictish influence in early illuminated manuscripts.

Friday 16 February 2018

The Provost writes:

In consultation with our Acting Bishop and Primus ++ Mark and in conversation with some of you, my fellow pilgrims and friends, Friday the 16th of February is set apart as a day of prayer in the Cathedral. The day will commence with Morning Prayers at 8.30am and end with Evening Prayers at 5pm. There will be refreshments in the John Skinner Centre should people wish to share a drink. We are a people of prayer. We pride ourselves in our liturgies and spirit led prayer gatherings. If people are moved by the Spirit to speak in the course of the day, there will be opportunity do so. We do not intend to have conversations or debates but simply to pray in silence or aloud and share in any utterance.

The City and the world is looking on at us. If you can spare a moment, please read through a reflection in the current FOCUS, the Cathedral Newsletter to get some insight into it. May God let us rise and shine again.

Thursday 01 March 2018
