All Saints

Collect

Almighty God, you have knit together your elect in one communion in the mystical body of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord: grant that we may attain, with all your saints, the whole measure of the fullness of Christ; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, world without end.

Amen.

A reading from the Book of Prophet Isaiah

On this mountain the LORD of hosts will make for all peoples a feast of rich food, a feast of well-matured wines, of rich food filled with marrow, of well-matured wines strained clear.

And he will destroy on this mountain the shroud that is cast over all peoples, the sheet that is spread over all nations; he will swallow up death for ever. Then the Lord GOD will wipe away the tears from all faces, and the disgrace of his people he will take away from all the earth, for the LORD has spoken. It will be said on that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, so that he might save us.

This is the LORD for whom we have waited;
let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

*In response to the reader's concluding lines,
the People say: Thanks be to God.

The Gospel

When the Gospel is read in a communion service, in response to the reader's introduction, the People say:

(8am) Glory be to thee, O Lord. or (11am) Glory to Christ our Saviour.

When Mary came where Jesus was and saw him, she knelt at his feet and said to him, 'Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.'

When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was greatly disturbed in spirit and deeply moved.

He said, 'Where have you laid him?'

They said to him, 'Lord, come and see.' Jesus began to weep. So the Jews said, 'See how he loved him!' But some of them said, 'Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?'

Then Jesus, again greatly disturbed, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. Jesus said, 'Take away the stone.'

Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, 'Lord, already there is a stench because he has been dead four days.'

Jesus said to her, 'Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?'

So they took away the stone.

And Jesus looked upward and said, 'Father, I thank you for having heard me. I knew that you always hear me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that you sent me.'

When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, 'Lazarus, come out!'

The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with strips of cloth, and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, 'Unbind him, and let him go.'

When the Gospel is read in a communion service, in response to the reader's concluding lines, the People say:

(8am) Thanks be to thee, O Lord, for this thy Glorious Gospel or (11am) Praise to Christ our Lord.

Post Communion Prayer

Lord of hosts, we praise your glory reflected in your saints. May we who share at this table be filled with the joy of your eternal kingdom, where Jesus is Lord, now and for ever.

New Canons Elected to the Cathedral Chapter

Bishop Anne writes:

Two members of the House of Clergy have been elected to vacancies on Chapter. The Revd Capt Gerry Bowyer and the Revd Vittoria Hancock will be installed at the Cathedral on Sunday 25 November at 6.30pm during a service of Festal Evensong for Christ the King.

This service will mark the end of the Church's year – everyone in the diocese is invited to attend.

Don writes:

Con Anima Concert: Music and Meditations for Remembrance

Saturday 10th November, 4pm, in the East Kirk, Banchory, OR

Sunday 11th November, 7pm, in St Andrew's Cathedral, Aberdeen

A programme of music and readings emerging from darkness and mourning of war to light and hope of peace.

Both concerts in support of SSAFA ('The Forces charity' – they provide help as required to service people (whether currently serving or veterans) and their families, when in need or distress – huge variety of services, to serve a huge variety of needs. The 'families' bit is quite important, as it is often they who are in need of help....

For more information on the concerts or the choir, see the posters in the porch and hall, or ask Don – from whom you can also buy tickets (£12/£10).

For more information on SSAFA, see Colin or www.ssafa.org.uk (warning: there is a lot of material on this website – for an immediate look at the 'flavour' and variety of what they do, maybe try the 'about us' page, and from it the 'our stories' page)

Advent Supper Club

This year St Ternan's will be hosting 4 Advent suppers. They will take place from 7-9pm on the Wednesdays before each Sunday of Advent.

Whilst enjoying a light supper and mocktails, we will consider:

28th November: Peace

5th December: Hope

12th December: Joy

19th December: Love

On each occasion we will think about what really living with this quality means both here and in Israel/Palestine today. The discussions are suitable for adults and secondary aged students. Please feel free to come to one or all sessions as you are able. The Advent Suppers will be held in the Church Hall.

Advance notice:

The St Ternan's Gingerbread village will be returning this year, in combination with a special St Nicholas Journey. St Nicholas' Day is 6th December, so our Gingerbread village will appear for the weekend 8th-9th Dec. More information soon. For now, get your thinking caps on. We can't wait to see your architectural masterpieces!

Please Note

On Sunday 11th November, the main morning service will commence at 10.50am. This is to allow us to honour the 2 minute silence at 11am.
